A Family Tradition

The Garcia family has been in the restaurant business for over 50 years. They started out with a small taco stand in East Los Angeles. Over the years, the business has grown and expanded, but the Garcia family has never forgotten their roots. They still use the same recipes that their grandmother used, and they still make everything from scratch.

The Garcia family is passionate about their food. They believe that food is a way to bring people together and to celebrate life. They are proud to share their culture and their love of food with their customers.

The Food

Muy Bueno's menu features a wide variety of authentic Mexican dishes, including tacos, burritos, enchiladas, tamales, and tortas. The food is made with fresh, high-quality ingredients, and it is always flavorful and delicious.

Some of the most popular dishes at Muy Bueno include the carne asada tacos, the carnitas burritos, and the chicken enchiladas. The carne asada tacos are made with grilled steak that is marinated in a flavorful blend of spices. The carnitas burritos are made with slow-cooked pork that is shredded and then cooked in a savory sauce. The chicken enchiladas are made with tender chicken that is rolled in corn tortillas and then topped with a flavorful enchilada sauce.

In addition to their regular menu, Muy Bueno also offers a daily specials menu. The specials menu features a variety of different dishes, including soups, salads, and desserts. The specials menu is a great way to try something new and different at Muy Bueno.
