What is the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers?

The U.S. Army Corps of Engineers is a federal agency that manages the nation's water resources. In addition to its flood control and navigation responsibilities, the Corps also manages over 400 dams and reservoirs, which create some of the most beautiful lakes in the country.

Corps Campgrounds

Corps campgrounds are typically located on or near these lakes, and they offer a variety of amenities to make your stay enjoyable. Many campgrounds have RV hookups, tent pads, picnic tables, fire rings, and restrooms. Some campgrounds also offer boat ramps, swimming beaches, hiking trails, and fishing piers.

Finding a Corps Campground

The best way to find a Corps campground is to visit the Corps website. The website has a searchable database of all Corps campgrounds, and you can filter your search by state, lake, or amenity. You can also make reservations online or by phone.

Tips for Camping at a Corps Campground

Here are a few tips to make your camping trip at a Corps campground a success:

- Reserve your campsite in advance. Corps campgrounds are popular, so it's important to reserve your campsite in advance, especially if you're planning to camp during peak season.
- Arrive early. Check-in time at Corps campgrounds is typically 2:00 pm, but it's a good idea to arrive early to get a good campsite.
- Be prepared for the weather. The weather can change quickly at Corps campgrounds, so be sure to pack for all types of weather.
- Follow the rules. Corps campgrounds have rules and regulations to protect the resources and ensure the safety of visitors. Be sure to follow all the rules and regulations.

- Have fun! Corps campgrounds are a great place to relax and enjoy the outdoors. Take some time to explore the lake, go for a hike, or just relax by the campfire.

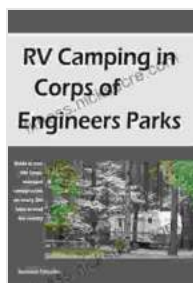

The Best Corps Campgrounds

With so many Corps campgrounds to choose from, it can be hard to know where to start. Here are a few of the best Corps campgrounds around the country:

- Lake Powell, Arizona: Lake Powell is one of the largest man-made lakes in the country, and it's home to a number of Corps campgrounds. The campgrounds offer stunning views of the lake and the surrounding canyons.
- Lake Tahoe, California/Nevada: Lake Tahoe is a beautiful alpine lake located in the Sierra Nevada Mountains. The Corps manages several campgrounds on Lake Tahoe, including Emerald Bay Campground and D.L. Bliss State Park.
- Lake Okeechobee, Florida: Lake Okeechobee is the largest freshwater lake in the state of Florida. The Corps manages several campgrounds on Lake Okeechobee, including Pelican Bay Campground and Taylor Creek Campground.
- Lake Michigan, Michigan: Lake Michigan is one of the Great Lakes, and it's home to a number of Corps campgrounds. The campgrounds offer stunning views of the lake and the surrounding shoreline.
- Lake Superior, Minnesota/Wisconsin/Michigan: Lake Superior is the largest of the Great Lakes, and it's home to a number of Corps campgrounds. The campgrounds offer stunning views of the lake and the surrounding forests.

Whether you're looking for a quiet retreat or a fun-filled vacation, a Corps campground is the perfect place to enjoy the great outdoors. With over 600 campgrounds to choose from, there's sure to be a campground that's perfect for you.
